NEWS WILL STARTLE

Washington, D. C., April 28.—Startling disclosures in connection with charges of wholesale duplication of government bonds were forecast today by Royal C. Johnson, South Dakota, Republican. Johnson spoke with reference to insistent rumors in circulation of the duplication of between $350,000,000 and $400,000,000 worth of government bonds. On the floor of the House he had charged that hundreds of millions of such bonds had been duplicated. Within a few weeks this piece of news will be the overshadowing news of Washington, Johnson said.

Miner's Leader Urged Marching Army Onward Against Men's Will

Charleston, West Va., April 28.—J. H. Stewart, first witness in the treason trials here, today testified that the "army" wanted to turn back but were urged onward by Frank Teeney, union leader. Mother Jones, famous union leader, intercepted the union "army" at Lens Creek, West Virginia, and he quoted her as saying that the miners wanted to go home. Teeney denounced as a fake the telegram Mother Jones read from President Harding calling on the miners to disperse. He said he followed this with a request for a vote of confidence and got it.

ROTARIANS HAVE BIG TIME ENDING FIRST LODGE YEAR

Dine, Listen To Fine
Program and Elect
Board of Directors for
Next Year

HAPPY OCCASION

The regular weekly meeting of the Clearfield Rotary Club, held at the Jordan last evening was an especially happy occasion. It was the last meeting of the club year and Chairman Bruce Porter of the Entertainment Committee, offered a very elaborate program which added greatly to the success of the meeting.

The musical program was interspersed throughout the dinner and at the conclusion of the feast President Ward O. Wilson arose and introduced a quartet of guests from Phillipsburg. They were Messrs Jackson, Fleming, Runk and Stauffer, the committee on membership of the Phillipsburg Rotary Club which will be organized at the Hotel Phillips, at 12:30 next Tuesday. The Phillipsburgers extended an invitation to local club to participate in the institution of their club and the invitation was enthusiastically accepted. Messrs Hobart Callahan, Thornton Tile and John E. Hess were appointed a committee to check up the Clearfielders who will attend and report to number to the committee in charge at Phillipsburg in time for the necessary arrangements for them to be made.

Charles T. Kurtz was unanimously elected to represent the Clearfield Club at the International Rotary Convention in Los Angeles, Kurtz accepting the honor only on condition that he be allowed to pay his own expenses.

The annual election was scheduled for this meeting and when the membership entered the dining room they found the candidates—or somebody else—had been busy as candidate cards bearing the names of all the candidates with suitable inscriptions, hereon occupied vantage points throughout the room. The election resulted in the following nine members being chosen to the Board of Directors for the coming year: A. D. Miller, Dean H. Bloom, James Kerr, Philip B. Reed, Pearl T. Davis, Allen V. Pearce, F. Gurney Smith, Samuel T. Warner, George E. Zerfoss. The Board of Directors will select the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer and report their names to the next meeting of the Club.

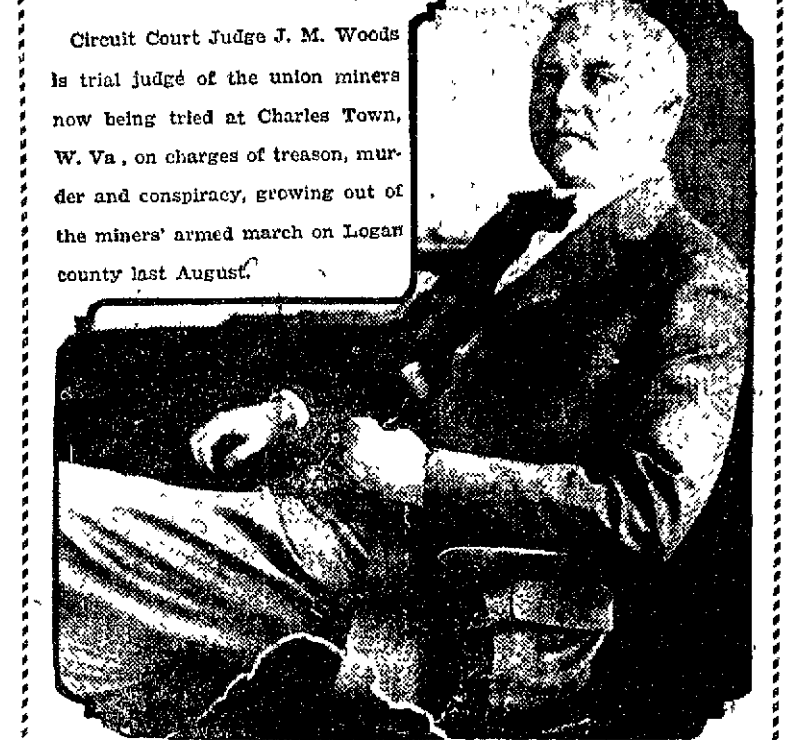

During the evening several very high class vocal and instrumental selections were given by the local artists provided by the Entertainment Committee. Misses Madeleine Porter and Elizabeth Will-on sang several solos and duets with Misses Anna Connelly and Dorothy Woodward presiding at the piano. Miss Connelly also favored with a pleasing piano solo. An instrumental trio consisting of Miss Clara Howard at the piano, Thomas Bryan, French horn and Edwin Howard flute, delighted the diners. Mrs. B. J. Young and son sang the evening.

COALPORT MAN IS VICTIM OF GYPSY PURSE SNATCHER

Workman on State
Road Has Pocket Picked
When He Refuses
To Have Fortune Told

FOUND CAR HERE

A. M. Noel, of Coalport, came down to Clearfield last evening for the purpose of attempting to identify a Gypsy who snatched a wallet out of his pocket and hopping into an automobile beat it away. The robbery occurred on the State road near Coalport. Noel was working on the road for Follen at Lysie on Wednesday afternoon when an automobile containing three Gypsies drove up and stopped. The Gypsies, two men and a woman got out of the car and solicited Noel to have his fortune told. "The road builder said he didn't care to find out in advance what was going to happen to him in the future, he preferred to wait until it actually happened to him, then he would know all about it. He didn't have long to wait for something to happen to him. As he dismissed the Gyps Noel turned to his work and in bending over disclosed a wallet containing $16 sticking in it. Noel caught the number as the car shot down the road and District Attorney was notified. Enlisting the aid of Chief of Police Hitt the Gypsy camp in the lower end of Moray's Woods was visited and the car used by the fellow who snatched the wallet was found.

When Noel arrived last evening the Gypsies were lined up and he gave them the "once over". He was unable to find the fellow who robbed.

PRESENTATION OF "JOAN OF ARC" BY OUR MUSIC CLUB

Real Musical Treat Of
Season Disclosed A
Wealth of Local Talent Last Evening.

THAYER, DIRECTOR

The Clearfield Musical Club is to be congratulated in having had Professor H. Clark Thayer to direct their beautiful cantata, Joan of Arc, by Paul, which was sung yesterday evening in the High School auditorium before a large audience. With a chorus of fifty-seven voices and an orchestra of twenty-three pieces under the sway of his baton, Prof. Thayer produced a piece splendid for its unity and its glorious sound. The chorus was wellblended and balanced. The orchestra followed the singers very well.

The cantata must have been a satisfying piece on which to work. Its well contrasted moods run from the quick carefree through pure singing melody, the martial, the sad, the heroic "Her deeds will live and remain." The swells and echoes were well done, both by the chorus and individuals. The volume and enthusiasm of the full choruses were inspiring.

Mrs. E. C. Reeve, who sang the part of Joan, lived up to her already fine reputation. Her range and control as well as the rich tone quality of her voice were a delight to her audience. Mr. Victor Meredith, a Robert de Bandricourt, and then Jean de Noveloupont, was equally pleasing in war-like strain or more gentle simple melody. His voice is well placed and his tones are invariably sure, no matter how unusual the interval. Mr. Robert Mitchell, the village lover of Joan, following her through all her adventures was well qualified by his high tenor voice to

CHASE THE RUBBISH, DIRT AND GERMS

We again appeal to you to clean up your back lots and in the rear of your business places. Last year on our Clean-up Week we arranged and had trucks donated and gathered up and hauled away tin cans and all kinds of rubbish. It is now up to you to have it hauled away yourselves.

To owners of vacant lots and fields we ask you to clean them up and have the dumping of all kinds of rubbish on them stopped. Let us make our town healthier to live in and better to look at.

In Addition To The 3
Men Killed Several
Others Were Seriously
Injured.

NO CLUE TO FIENDS

Apollo, Pa., April 28.—Three non-union miners were killed and another seriously injured when a bunk house near the Patterson mines of the Kiskiminitas Coal Company was dynamited early today. Several men were sleeping in the single room of the frame structure when a bomb was hurled through the window. The dead are Stanley Melike, aged 30, who leaves a wife and three children, Andrew Borniak aged 25, leaving a wife and three children and Frank Ridgski, aged 50, leaving a wife and seven children. The most seriously injured was Frank Cogaski, aged 40, unmarried, who is in the Allegheny General Hospital with splinters from the bomb in his head. Two others were also injured.

The mine is across the Kiskiminitas River from Apollo. Since the beginning of the coal strike efforts have been made to operate the mine with non-union miners. About fifteen men were employed.

Apollo, Pa. April 28.—State police in charge of the search arrived from Leechburg and started an investigation. A pack of bloodhounds was secured and put on the trail of the bombers. Five men were in the bombing party but there is some confusion as to whether the assailants threw the bomb through the window or broke open the door; Dan Rowan, watchman at the mine, had passed the bunk house only a few minutes before the explosion occurred and it is thought the bombers were in hiding until after he made his next round. The occupants of the bunk house were recruited from Natrona and Brackenridge about a week ago. According to one of the miners who was awakened by a crash of glass he made a dive for the bomb in an effort to throw it out of the bunk house, but the bomb, which was made from a reconstructed army shell, exploded before he could reach it and he was badly injured.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Ben Dale, the Paradise dairyman, read the story concerning Clover, the oldest horse on record, and says that he has an old nag of his own. Ben's horse is not quite as old as Clover but has already passed his 31st milestone. He was purchased by Mr. Dale from C. E. Patton, at Curwensville, when ten years old and has since served his second master for just twenty-one years. The old horse despite the fact that he is well along in his 32d year, worked every day last summer and will be used at light work about the farm again the coming season.

Highway construction costs this year will be considerably under the prevailing prices since the war period, the Department of Agriculture at Washington announces.

Bids received on 286 miles of Federal aid road by the Bureau of Public Roads for the week ending April 8 show the trend of declining prices. Reduction in material and labor costs is the reason for the lower bidding. The result will be that many projects can be let to contract that would have had to wait for additional appropriations.

Average cost per mile of some types of roadway, including grading, drainage, are: Gravel, $9,150; bituminous macadam, $25,200; bituminous concrete, $25,000; concrete, $29. In this connection it will be well to note that the best price so far obtained in the building of Clearfield county roads has been at the rate of about $32,000 per mile. Our roads are reinforced concrete.

Luxuriant tresses for the bald-headed men and the women with thinning hair—all by merely taking a few extra-strong thyroid tablets persistently!

That is the promise held out by the doctors of the famous Guy's Hospital, London.

It is claimed that one case of absolute baldness has been already cured by this treatment.

We have no disposition or wish to "knock" the sheep that produces the thyroid but we're "from Missouri"—you'll have to show us. We have seen and heard of too many of these "sure cures for baldness" since we succeeded in growing up through our hair.

The national debt, multiplied about twenty-three times because the necessary outpouring of billions during the Great War, is now in a state of apparently permanent decline.

The gross debt, funded and unfunded, stood at $23,145,000,000. On March 31, according to an official statement of the Treasury Department. This is the lowest point reached since the Armistice by the debt which fluctuates monthly. Deducting from the gross debt the net balance on the Government's general fund, reduces the obligation still lower to $22,773,000,000.

The peak of the national debt was reached on August 31, 1919, when the obligation totaled $26,597,000,000.

The debt has been curtailed approximately twelve per cent since March 1921, when it was close to $24,000,000,000.

Interest on the debt amounts to more than $900,000,000 a year and constitutes the largest single item in the entire cost of Government. When added to the amounts that must be paid to the principal, the debt outlay represents an expenditure of more than $12 a year for every resident of the United States.

Steady reduction of the debt lowers the annual outlay for interests and by decreasing the cost of government, brings nearer that period when the need of the Government for the present high tax collections will diminish.

With the budget system controlling Government disbursements, it is predicted that the monthly fluctuations of the debt will not be so violent. Heretofore the debt has fluctuated because the Government periodically borrowed money against expected tax receipts and spent its income before the money was received. Taxes flow into the Government coffers in larger proportions during March, June, September and December.

In the past the debt has taken a sudden drop after each of these months. July, 1921, showed a drop, as did October and December. But in each case the debt began to climb shortly after. In no case, however, was the increase large enough to take the debt total back to the former high level.

Some gain was made in the level of the debt in August as compared with June. In November, the new borrowings failed to bring the debt back to the level of early September made against the expected income tax receipts of the middle of that month.

In February, 1921, the debt rose as compared with January. But the rise stopped short of $23,500,000,000. That was nearly $100,000,000 below the former high level of November. The debt is now nearly $900,000,000 below the high point of February. It is likely to rise during April. But will not reach the level of February Treasury officials believe.

The family desire to express their thanks to the friends for their assistance and especially to the members of the Methodist Congregation.

Democrats Have Talk Fest At Harrisburg

San Antonio, Texas, April 28.—One man was killed by a prohibition officer who waged war on moonshiners over a wide area today. Frank Payson, aged 28, a farmer died from wounds he received when dry agents raided a place where it had been rumored bootleggers were to deliver six to three gallons of liquor. Scores of shots were exchanged. No liquor was found on the premises.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 28.—James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1920, and John A. McSparran, present Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, will speak here tonight at the Jefferson Day dinner. Charles D. McAvoy, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Samuel S. Sull, of Stroudsburg, and Colonel Frederick B. Kerr, of Clearfield, candidate for the United States Senate, will also be present, the committee in charge announced.

FRANCE OBJECTS TO ALLIES ULTIMATUM

Genoa, Italy, April 28.—France's objection to the Allies ultimatum note to Russia today caused another day's delay at Genoa. The draft of the note prepared by the Allied experts as ready for acceptance by the conference committee. The French delegation objected to it and prepared a counter draft. Belgium is said to side with France in this matter.

KU KLUX KLAN LINKED WITH LOS ANGELES TERROR

Los Angeles, Cal., April 28.—We have definitely linked the Ku Klux Klan with the masked mob outrage at Inglewood and with the reign of terror prevailing throughout the county. We are now prepared to go before a grand jury and prove our contentions, said Thomas Lee Woolwine, as he and his aides completed the securing of data following the raid on Ku Klux Klan headquarters where documents and registers were secured which contained evidence against persons in five states.

Dr. Woodside, of Bigler, transacted business in town yesterday.

AND EVERYWHERE THAT MARY WENT

Body of Murdered Girl Found In Vacant House

Hoopstetown, Ill., April 28.—Gertrude Hanna, aged 25, choir girl, whose body was found in the basement of the United Presbyterian parsonage here was smothered by chloroform, the police believed today. The girl who was soon to become a mother was killed some spot distant from the parsonage and her body hidden in the clammy basement of the unoccupied house. Examination of the girl's vital organs by physicians failed to reveal the presence of poison and there were no marks of injuries on the body. Several young men whose names have been coupled with that of Miss Hanna since discovery of the body started gossip buzzing have been questioned by the police.

Hoopstetown, Ill., April 28.—Gertrude Hanna, choir girl, met her death while her betrayer who had kidnapped her, tried to persuade her to undergo an illegal operation. He held her prisoner for several days and then administered chloroform, according to chief of police Bogard. Death resulted accidentally, Bogard believes.

and the murderer hid the body in the basement of the abandoned house where it was found by carpenters. Search is being made throughout the country surrounding Hoopstetown for a house where it is believed the girl had a rendezvous with her lover and where he detained her by force. Half a dozen young men who were believed to have some information were interrogated by the police today, but all denied any knowledge of the murder.

Hoopstetown, Ill., April 28.—Bogard believes the man did not intend to slay the girl but planned to perform an illegal operation while she was unconscious from chloroform, but an overdose may have caused her death. The man could not leave the body at the place of death because of the great danger of being traced and discovered. Probably in the night he moved it to the deserted parsonage entering the one window which was not locked on the inside and arranged the body on the basement shelf where it was found.

On graduating from High School in 1915 Miss Hanna taught rural school for four years. She then went to a Chicago hospital and began a course in nursing but left there to become a clerk in a mail order house.

A nervous, break-down three years ago caused her to return to her home.

Baptist Women Undaunted by Big Task

To Raise $2,000,000 for
Home and Foreign Mission Work.

Northern Baptist women throughout the United States are today engaged in one of the largest money-raising efforts ever entered upon by women alone. During March and April they will carry on a campaign for $2,000,000 for the work of the fiscal year, on home and foreign fields.

"This is woman's work, as well as man's, and our women will do it," declared Mrs. George W. Coleman, Boston, Mass., President of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society and a member of the national committee of the Women's Continuation Campaign.

"Women today have extended their horizons to take in the needs of the world," said Mrs. Martha MacLeish, President of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, also on the campaign committee of ten members. "The day has gone when women could feel that they had done their part if they served as the family church-goers. Now women are church-goers, as well as church-goers."

"Northern Baptist women will do their share in the crisis that confronts the denomination," stated Mrs. Helen

Barrett Montgomery, President of the Northern Baptist Convention. "It will take a miracle for our women to raise $2,000,000 in so short a time. But miracles can be accomplished through faith, and we have chosen, 'Have faith in God as our slogan.'"

Although the Women's Continuation Campaign is a part of the general denominational campaign for $15,000,000 during March and April, the women have their own campaign organization, and will raise their $2,000,000 entirely by their own effort, and through their own sacrifices.

They set their own quota, and offered their services to Dr. John V. Aitchison, General Director of the General Board of Promotion of the Northern Baptist Convention. Northern Baptist women are accustomed to take an unusually active part in the work of the denomination. No other great religious body has ever chosen a woman for its president. One-third of the members of the Administrative Committee of the General Board of Promotion are women, and there are a number of women pastors in the Northern Baptist Convention field.

Many ingenious plans for swelling the women's fund are being put into effect in the various states. In Iowa, where the women's quota is $75,000 and where there is a large farm population, women are asked to give all the eggs laid on every Sunday during March and April to the campaign. In Illinois, here the quota is $171,750, women are giving memory gifts, as memorials to parents, husbands, children, or other relatives. The women of Kansas are putting their campaign play, "Solve the Top," to help secure their $90,000 quota.

The quotas assigned to the various districts, and the district campaign directors are as follows:

Atlantic District, $300,000, Mrs. George H. Swift of Woodbury, N. J.; New York District, $333,333.33, Mrs. Orrin B. Judd of Brooklyn; Central District, $250,000, Mrs. John Nuyven, of Chicago; West Central District, $200,000, Mrs. F. L. Miner, of Des Moines; East Central District, $300,000, Mrs. R. L. Hutchinson, of Huntington, W. Va.

New England District, $266,666.67, Mrs. Everett C. Herick, of Fall River; Columbia River District, $66,667, Mrs. J. J. Dickinson, of Seattle; Northwestern District, $122,666.67, Mrs. D. D. Smith, of St. Paul; Rocky Mountain District, $36,666.67, Mrs. F. I. Smith, of Denver; South Pacific District, $124,000.00, Mrs. A. W. Rider of Los Angeles.

I have been the custom for so long among college professors and other educational authorities to deplore numerous defects in education as it is dished out by the public schools that one more or less lamentation of this character should not make much difference. Nevertheless, the complaint, Dr. Lightner Witmer, professor of Psychology at the University of Pennsylvania, finds it impossible to refrain from adding to the long list of interesting because of its novelty.

The great flaw of the present day system of public instruction as Dr. Witmer has observed it is that it attempts "to educate mediocrities beyond their intelligence." He would keep average children from going beyond their appropriate number of school years by making their parents understand that it will do them no good to have further learning, that they might as well be at work helping to earn money for the family.

"The same thing," he adds, "is true of the colleges. Each year great number of pupils are allowed to matriculate who have no business in college, who accomplish nothing, except to clog up the system."

This theory, if applied literally to all school children would do away with education since the purpose of all instruction is to teach the pupil "things that were beyond their intelligence" before. No pupil, even though as dumb as some college professors, fails to benefit from additional instruction, how ever far he may have already progressed in a given line of study.

The human being learns something new every day of life. If a pupil can go to school and learn nothing, the fault is in the school and not the pupil.

"Whose Speech is Song?"

All old Poets, Homer's and the rest, are undoubtedly songs I would say, in strictness, that all right poems are what whatever is not sung is properly no poem, but a piece of prose crumpled into jangling lines—to the great injury of the grammar, to the great grief of the reader for the most part. What we want to get at is the thought the man had, if he had any; why should he twist it into rhyme? It is only when the heart of him is wrapped into true passion of melody and the very tones of him, according to Coleridge's remarks, become musical by the greatness, depth, and nature of his thoughts, that we can give him right to rhyme and sing; that we call him a Poet, and listen to him as the Heroic of Speakers,—whose speech is Song.—Carlyle.

Put it in Writing.

Agreements made by word of mouth are like leaves of the forest. They are out, drop off and blow away. Make a couple of copies of any contract you enter into. Keep one yourself and give the party of the second part another and lay the third away in your safe, with your most valuable papers.—Cleveland News-Leader.

Worth Knowing.

The Angels' bell, always, rung twice a day, takes its name from the best words of the player. The De Plo hands bell sounds one hour after the Ave. It was only a comparatively recent date that bells were used for calling people to church. For ages they were used solely for keeping evil spirits at distance.

Brain Alters Position.

There is no doubt that the normal brain obeys the law of gravity and alters its position with varying positions of the head. Every organ of the body possesses a degree of mobility proportional to the extent to which it is covered by a semi-membrane separating it from the skull. The cavity which contains it. Whenever the skull and dura are widely opened during an operation, movements of the brain can be demonstrated by altering the position of the head, and although their extent is probably exaggerated by reason of the different physical conditions which obtain in the open as compared with the closed skull, there is no reason to suppose that all movement is absent when the skull is whole.—Percy Sargent in Brain.

First Known Use of Ink

The bureau of standards says that the earliest use of liquid which can be described as ink is found in the remains of ancient Egyptian civilizations, and the date was probably about 2500 B. C. Chinese or Indian ink is known to have been in existence about this time. These inks were black and their base was carbon. Probably gum oil or varnish was mixed with it.

WHY WOMEN GET DESPONDENT

Are not women naturally as light-hearted, brave and hopeful as men? Yes, certainly; but a woman's organism is essentially different from man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman develops nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, backaches, dragging-down pains and melancholia she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such troubles. This root and herb medicine contains no drugs and has been the standby of American womanhood for nearly fifty years.

WILL BOX AT LEGION MEET

Two Ministers Take 10 Step Into Squared Arena at Washington State Convention.

For perhaps the first time in history two ministers of the gospel are going to box. In the squared arena for the benefit of the audience. Rev. John W. Beard, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Hoquiam, Wash., and Rev. Earl A. Blackman, national chaplain of the American Legion, will "mix it up" at the Legion state convention in Wenatchee, Wash., this fall.

Reverend Beard, who served as "sky pilot" with the old Ninety-first division in France, boxed John Dickenson, veteran of the British forces, at a recent meeting of his own Legion post. The Legion's national chaplain is an ardent boxing adherent himself. Though a pastor of a Kansas church, he finds time to act as boxing referee occasionally and dous the gloves himself just to keep in trim. Prior to his entering the ministry, he was known as a track and football star.

That his title of "fighting chaplain" isn't at all amiss is shown by a glance at Reverend Beard's war record. One doesn't think of a chaplain as having a war record, but Reverend Blackman's future opponent served with the Three Hundred and Sixty-first infantry, "Wildcat" division with the rank of captain. He was awarded the French Croix de Guerre and received a citation from the American government. The war over, he jumped into the Legion and was elected state chaplain for the department of Washington.

STILL AIDS EX-SERVICE MEN
Mrs. John Marshall, Kentucky, National Committeewoman, Active in After-War Work.

Mrs. John Marshall of Anchorage, Ky., known to thousands of ex-service men who were stationed in the Blue Grass state during the war and who visited the Red Cross canteen to be served with coffee and doughnuts, is still doing her large "bit" for the sick and wounded ex-service men. As national executive committeewoman for the American Legion Auxiliary from Kentucky, she is especially active in all the things that her organization is doing.

Her latest plan results in Louisville, Ky., having a boarding home for ex-service men who are taking vocational training there. Nominal fees, a huge living room and library and a real home atmosphere, are high points in the life of the "boys" who make their home with Mrs. Marshall.

More than 300,000 service men were cared for at the canteen presided over by Mrs. Marshall during the war. Her experiences with the soldiers and sailors are many. Months after the armistice she received a letter from a service man whose wedding supper she had prepared in 1917. It read, "Mrs. Canteen Lady, can you help me find my wife, not that she is much account, but I want to get married again and must find her first."

Dead Sea Stone.
On the shores of the Dead sea and west of that sea between Jerusalem and the vicinity of Nebi Musa is found a peculiar stone. The stone, which is abundant, is commonly used by the local people in making souvenirs. It is a matter of common knowledge that the Bedouins have used this stone for several years as fuel.

The Stork's Mistake.
"Oh, mother," said a little girl excitedly, "there's a new baby over at Mrs. Brown's; but don't you think the stork meant it for Miss Jones, who boards there? 'Cause Mrs. Brown has four children already and Miss Jones hasn't got a single one."—Boston Transcript.

Wrong Belief Concerning Hebrew.
Less than two centuries ago even men of learning believed that Hebrew was the original language, and that all other languages were offshoots from it. It has since been discovered that Hebrew was a dead language in the time of Jesus, and that modern language has been derived from it not even Yiddish.

Show Eggs Are All Right

X-rayed eggs are the latest wrinkle introduced by one of the largest grocery organizations in the city. To satisfy patrons of the purity and high quality of the eggs, it has installed in each branch store a patented container having a capacity of three dozen with a separate place for each egg. The container is filled with eggs picked at random from a case, after which a brilliant electric light is turned on beneath the eggs, and any "rots or spots" are revealed at once. It is the ordinary system of candling eggs, but sounds better when called X-raying.—New York Evening Post.

The Carat

This is any standard of weight, although not one person in a million ever makes practical use of it; possesses great prestige because of its connection with diamonds, and other precious stones. But how many of us have any clear idea of the weight represented by a carat? In England it is customary to reckon 15 1/2 carats to the ounce, troy. This makes the carat equivalent to 205 1/2 milligrams, or 3.1683 grains. Attempts have been made to secure general recognition in all countries of a metric standard unit of 206 milligrams.

Perfect Alibi

A small boy, who is observant and consequently well informed for his age, was questioned by his mother about a scratch she had just found on one of her pieces of furniture. He replied: "I didn't do that; can't you see it's only a birthmark?"

Better Shoes for Less Money

E-J Girls' Shoes are built to stand the test. Like famous E-J Work Shoes, long wear is guaranteed in at E-J's own tanneries.

Boys are hard on shoes. E-J's shoes enjoy rough play. Put your boy in a pair of E-J's and let him romp freely. They'll stand it.

True Economy On Children's Shoes

In buying shoes for your children this spring—be careful! Don't confuse cheap shoes with economical shoes. Shoes with quality sacrificed for price won't save you any money.

Endicott-Johnson prices are low. But it is the reduced cost of quantity production not inferior materials that makes these low prices to you. E-J's for children are economical shoes—reasonably priced, long wearing.

Your local dealer has the new line for spring and summer ready for you. Take the kiddies to your local store and fit them out. They will like the style and snap of E-J's as well as you will like their strength and low price. And—very important—they are lasted and modeled on scientific lines not to cramp or injure growing feet.

Buy at your Local Shoe Store with the Endicott-Johnson Sign in the window

ENDICOTT-JOHNSON SHOES

DENNIS NOLAN DIES ON PACIFIC COAST

Dennis Nolan, formerly of Phillipsburg, died yesterday at his home in Ellensburg, Washington, according to a telegram received by his grandson, Bernard Nolan, of Brown's Boot Shop. The deceased was about 80 years of age and is survived by one son and a daughter in this section, Dennis Nolan and Mrs. Wm. Leadbetter, both of Barnesboro, Pa.

Curious Scales Used in Ecuador.
A short stick carrying a suspended pan at each end and held up by a cord about the center is the common trade balance of Ecuador. The weight is a rock about the size of a man's fist, and while no two of the stones are ever the same size, the merchant is always prepared to pledge his honor that the stone weighs a full and exact pound. The price for a commodity is almost never fixed, and as the Ecuadorian is always prepared and expects to come down somewhat from his first price, it speaks words for his optimism that he invariably tries to get more. The bargaining does not actually begin until you have disregarded the first figure and asked, "What is the last price?"

Horrid Thing!
"We had a splendid time in the country," said Mrs. Newrich, "and my husband has turned out to be a good shot. The men went out one day to do some shooting, and my husband got what they call a bull. And some mean old farmer made him pay for it."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

MORE REPRISAL KILLINGS TERRORIZE IRELAND

Blow for the Minister.
In a certain church one of the duties of the old sexton was to pump the organ. The man was deaf and perhaps on that account had fallen into the somewhat embarrassing habit of abruptly quitting his task before the hymn was ended. One Sunday a new minister was coming, and since he was young and unmarried, the young lady who played the organ naturally wanted to appear to the best advantage. As soon as the service had begun she wrote a note and, handing it to the sexton, told him to read it at once. Evidently the old man did not correctly catch his words, for to her horror she saw him go to the minister right after the first hymn and hand him the note. The minister opened it and read: "Keep bloying steadily away until I tell you to stop."—Youth's Companion.

Value of Varnish Long Known.
Varnish as a preservative, made from gums, is by no means modern, for a so-called varnish was entombed in wrappings around forms when mummies were first laid away in ancient Egypt. And in the Nineteenth century B. C. temples on Thebes were decorated with paintings in which varnish had its part. The magnetic quality found in amber was long ago supposed to lend richness of tone to violins which were varnished with a mixture of amber and alcohol. Zanzibar gum is the newest approach to amber in clearness, and often beautiful bugs are found embedded within its clear substance. Such a curious thing as the tail of a chimpanzee, with each hair spread as if in the breeze, has been found embedded in Zanzibar gum.

SEWING BEE AT WOODLAND

On Tuesday, April 25, a crowd of jolly neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Roy Peters of Mineral Springs for another sewing bee. A delightful day was spent which included a delicious dinner that was served at 12 o'clock. The guests were Mrs. Fullerton, Mrs. John Palmer, Mrs. B. J. Young and son James, and Mrs. Maude Peters, of Mineral Springs; Mrs. Brac Albert, Mrs. Burke Albert and daughter, Grace; Mrs. Wilsoncroft, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Will Berger, Mrs. Mary Gingery, Mrs. Maggie Young, Mrs. Jess Leavish and Mrs. J. N. Palmer, of Woodland.

Mrs. J. N. Palmer and Miss Leavish held the honors of sewing the most short rags. The ladies sewed 21 lbs rags, a good days work.

Aster Hardy Perennial.
The aster is one of the hardiest perennials, and is spread throughout the world. Most of the numerous varieties belong to North America and are found in abundance in the fields. They bloom mostly from the middle of July until the first frost and are a prominent feature of most flower gardens. As they may be sown as early as the middle of March.

Florida Named for Easter.
Florida was so called by Ponce de Leon because he discovered it on Easter Sunday, which is in Spanish Pascua Florida.

Nash Leads the World in Motor Car Value

THAT leadership which Nash cars are assuming everywhere throughout the country in their respective classes can be seen reflected nowhere more clearly and unmistakably than in the figures for the annual sale of motor cars by all manufacturers.

But a scant five years ago Nash stood 24th in volume of business yearly. Now Nash is in 8th place and that in itself speaks weightily as to the quality and value embodied in the fours and sixes that bear the Nash emblem on the radiator.

Port of Entry, Port of Call
"Port of entry" is a term from the revenue law regarding a district or designated locality whether a municipal port or not where foreign goods may be introduced for import. The "port of destination" is the landing place where a ship discharges part or all of her cargo. The port of call is a port where vessels customarily stop for coal, repairs, transshipment of cargo, etc.

Had 'Em, Going and Coming
The ostrich is certainly a bird at nothing excuse it really takes the plume it we can credit the Arabians. They call it the camel bird and in one of their sayings it took advantage of the name in this manner: "They said to the camel bird 'Carry' it said 'I cannot for I am a bird.' They said 'Then fly.' It answered 'I cannot, for I am a camel.'"—Los Angeles Times.

Shocks Caused by Moods

Shocks caused by moods. Every shock calls up all the memories caused by other shocks of the same nature and creates the passion it is connected with. Moods can result only from a lack of common sense. A stronger mood will always supplant a weaker one. Sometimes a shock of high intensity, as anger will fall while a mood of lower intensity, but greater persistence, such as love, is in progress. The anger mood locks out the love mood and only anger memories and imaginations rule the mind. As it grows and grows and disappears and he love mood with its memories and imagination return to thought—change.

A Tip to the Wise

It was in the middle of the second semester that I went to have a new instructor in the English department. I rushed into the classroom and saw a supposed fellow student in one of the seats. "Well, I guess we'll have to give the old girl a good welcome this morning but be rather dumb so she won't expect too much." In a moment the young woman began calling the roll, proving to be the instructor herself. Chicago Tribune.

The personal in last evening's Progress concerning Walter Flegal's supposed trip to Chicago to meet his wife, was an error as Mrs. Flegal is not coming to Clearfield at this time and Walter Flegal was not out of town at all. The information upon which the item was based was all wrong.

Representative Johnson
Says Duplicate Bonds

$400,000,000.

NEWS WILL STARTLE

Washington, D. C., April 28.—Startling disclosures in connection with charges of wholesale duplication of government bonds were forecast today by Royal C. Johnson, South Dakota, Republican. Johnson spoke with reference to insistent rumors in circulation of the duplication of between $350,000,000 and $400,000,000 worth of government bonds. On the floor of the House he had charged that hundreds of millions of such bonds had been duplicated. Within a few weeks this piece of news will be the overshadowing news of Washington, Johnson said.

Miner's Leader Urged Marching Army Onward Against Men's Will

Charleston, West Va., April 28.—J. H. Stewart, first witness in the treason trials here, today testified that the "army" wanted to turn back but were urged onward by Frank Teeney, union leader. Mother Jones, famous union leader, intercepted the union "army" at Lens Creek, West Virginia, and he quoted her as saying that the miners wanted to go home. Teeney denounced as a fake the telegram Mother Jones read from President Harding calling on the miners to disperse. He said he followed this with a request for a vote of confidence and got it.

ROTARIANS HAVE BIG TIME ENDING FIRST LODGE YEAR

Program and Elect
Board of Directors for
Next Year

HAPPY OCCASION

The regular weekly meeting of the Clearfield Rotary Club, held at the Jordan last evening was an especially happy occasion. It was the last meeting of the club year and Chairman Bruce Porter of the Entertainment Committee, offered a very elaborate program which added greatly to the success of the meeting.

The musical program was interspersed throughout the dinner and at the conclusion of the feast President Ward O. Wilson arose and introduced a quartet of guests from Phillipsburg. They were Messrs Jackson, Fleming, Runk and Stauffer, the committee on membership of the Phillipsburg Rotary Club which will be organized at the Hotel Phillips, at 12:30 next Tuesday. The Phillipsburgers extended an invitation to the local club to participate in the institution of their club and the invitation was enthusiastically accepted. Messrs Hobart Callahan, Thornton Tile and John E. Hess were appointed a committee to check up the Clearfielders who will attend and report to number to the committee in charge at Phillipsburg in time for the necessary arrangements for them to be made.

Charles T. Kurtz was unanimously elected to represent the Clearfield Club at the International Rotary Convention in Los Angeles, Kurtz accepting the honor only on condition that he be allowed to pay his own expenses.

The annual election was scheduled for this meeting and when the membership entered the dining room they found the candidates—or somebody else—had been busy as candidate cards bearing the names of all the candidates with suitable inscriptions, hereon occupied vantage points throughout the room. The election resulted in the following nine members being chosen to the Board of Directors for the coming year: A. D. Reiter, Dean H. Bloom, James Kerr, Philip B. Reed, Pearl T. Davis, Allen V. Pearce, F. Gurney Smith, Samuel T. Warner, George E. Zerfoss. The Board of Directors will select the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer and report their names to the next meeting of the Club.

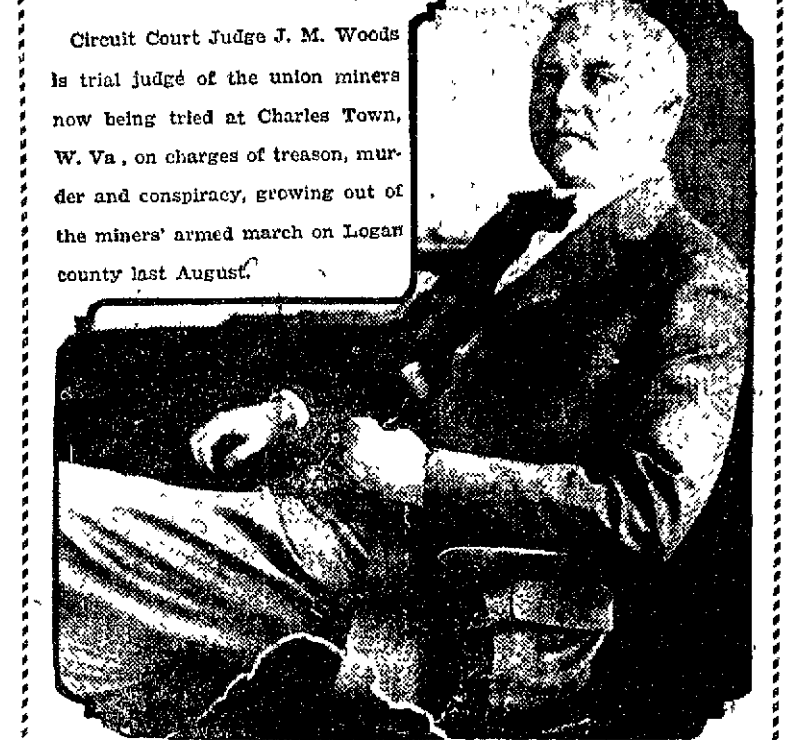

During the evening several very high class vocal and instrumental selections were given by the local artists provided by the Entertainment Committee. Misses Madeleine Porter and Elizabeth Will-on sang several solos and duets with Misses Anna Connelly and Dorothy Woodward presiding at the piano. Miss Connelly also favored with a pleasing piano solo. An instrumental trio consisting of Miss Clara Howard at the piano, Thomas Bryan, French horn and Edwin Howard flute, delighted the diners. Mrs. B. J. Young and son sang the evening.

COALPORT MAN IS VICTIM OF GYPSY PURSE SNATCHER

Workman on State
Road Has Pocket Picked
When He Refuses
To Have Fortune Told

FOUND CAR HERE

A. M. Noel, of Coalport, came down to Clearfield last evening for the purpose of attempting to identify a Gypsy who snatched a wallet out of his pocket and hopping into an automobile beat it away. The robbery occurred on the State road near Coalport. Noel was working on the road for Follen at Lysie on Wednesday afternoon when an automobile containing three Gypsies drove up and stopped. The Gypsies, two men and a woman got out of the car and solicited Noel to have his fortune told. "The road builder said he didn't care to find out in advance what was going to happen to him in the future, he preferred to wait until it actually happened to him, then he would know all about it. He didn't have long to wait for something to happen to him. As he dismissed the Gyps Noel turned to his work and in bending over disclosed a wallet containing $16 sticking in it. Noel caught the number as the car shot down the road and District Attorney was notified. Enlisting the aid of Chief of Police Hitt the Gypsy camp in the lower end of Moray's Woods was visited and the car used by the fellow who snatched the wallet was found.

When Noel arrived last evening the Gypsies were lined up and he gave them the "once over". He was unable to find the fellow who robbed.

PRESENTATION OF "JOAN OF ARC" BY OUR MUSIC CLUB

Real Musical Treat Of
Season Disclosed A
Wealth of Local Talent Last Evening.

THAYER, DIRECTOR

The Clearfield Musical Club is to be congratulated in having had Professor H. Clark Thayer to direct their beautiful cantata, Joan of Arc, by Paul, which was sung yesterday evening in the High School auditorium before a large audience. With a chorus of fifty-seven voices and an orchestra of twenty-three pieces under the sway of his baton, Prof. Thayer produced a piece splendid for its unity and its glorious sound. The chorus was wellblended and balanced. The orchestra followed the singers very well.

The cantata must have been a satisfying piece on which to work. Its well contrasted moods run from the quick carefree through pure singing melody, the martial, the sad, the heroic "Her deeds will live and remain." The swells and echoes were well done, both by the chorus and individuals. The volume and enthusiasm of the full choruses were inspiring.

Mrs. E. C. Reeve, who sang the part of Joan, lived up to her already fine reputation. Her range and control as well as the rich tone quality of her voice were a delight to her audience. Mr. Victor Meredith, a Robert de Bandricourt, and then Jean de Noveloup, was equally pleasing in war-like strain or more gentle simple melody. His voice is well placed and his tones are invariably sure, no matter how unusual the interval. Mr. Robert Mitchell, the village lover of Joan, following her through all her adventures was well qualified by his high tenor voice to

Men Killed Several
Others Were Seriously
Injured.

NO CLUE TO FIENDS

Apollo, Pa., April 28.—Three non-union miners were killed and another seriously injured when a bunk house near the Patterson mines of the Kiskiminitas Coal Company was dynamited early today. Several men were sleeping in the single room of the frame structure when a bomb was hurled through the window. The dead are Stanley Melke, aged 30, who leaves a wife and three children, Andrew Borniak aged 25, leaving a wife and three children and Frank Ridgski, aged 50, leaving a wife and seven children. The most seriously injured was Frank Cogaski, aged 40, unmarried, who is in the Allegheny General Hospital with splinters from the bomb in his head. Two others were also injured.

The mine is across the Kiskiminitas River from Apollo. Since the beginning of the coal strike efforts have been made to operate the mine with non-union miners. About fifteen men were employed.

Apollo, Pa. April 28.—State police in charge of the search arrived from Leechburg and started an investigation. A pack of bloodhounds was secured and put on the trail of the bombers. Five men were in the bombing party but there is some confusion as to whether the assailants threw the bomb through the window or broke open the door; Dan Rowan, watchman at the mine, had passed the bunk house only a few minutes before the explosion occurred and it is thought the bombers were in hiding until after he made his next round. The occupants of the bunk house were recruited from Natrona and Brackenridge about a week ago. According to one of the miners who was awakened by a crash of glass he made a dive for the bomb in an effort to throw it out of the bunk house, but the bomb, which was made from a reconstructed army shell, exploded before he could reach it and he was badly injured.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Ben Dale, the Paradise dairyman, read the story concerning Clover, the oldest horse on record, and says that he has an old nag of his own. Ben's horse is not quite as old as Clover but has already passed his 31st milestone. He was purchased by Mr. Dale from C. E. Patton, at Curwensville, when ten years old and has since served his second master for just twenty-one years. The old horse despite the fact that he is well along in his 32d year, worked every day last summer and will be used at light work about the farm again the coming season.

Highway construction costs this year will be considerably under the prevailing prices since the war period, the Department of Agriculture at Washington announces.

Bids received on 286 miles of Federal aid road by the Bureau of Public Roads for the week ending April 8 show the trend of declining prices. Reduction in material and labor costs is the reason for the lower bidding. The result will be that many projects can be let to contract that would have had to wait for additional appropriations.

Average cost per mile of some types of roadway, including grading, drainage, are: Gravel, $9,150; bituminous macadam, $25,200; bituminous concrete, $25,000; concrete, $29. In this connection it will be well to note that the best price so far obtained in the building of Clearfield county roads has been at the rate of about $32,000 per mile. Our roads are reinforced concrete.

The national debt, multiplied about twenty-three times because the necessary outpouring of billions during the Great War, is now in a state of apparently permanent decline.

The gross debt, funded and unfunded, stood at $23,145,000,000. On March 31, according to an official statement of the Treasury Department. This is the lowest point reached since the Armistice by the debt which fluctuates monthly. Deducting from the gross debt the net balance on the Government's general fund, reduces the obligation still lower to $22,773,000,000.

The peak of the national debt was reached on August 31, 1919, when the obligation totaled $26,597,000,000.

The debt has been curtailed approximately twelve per cent since March 1921, when it was close to $24,000,000,000.

Interest on the debt amounts to more than $900,000,000 a year and constitutes the largest single item in the entire cost of Government. When added to the amounts that must be paid to the principal, the debt outlay represents an expenditure of more than $12 a year for every resident of the United States.

Steady reduction of the debt lowers the annual outlay for interests

and by decreasing the cost of government, brings nearer that period when the need of the Government for the present high tax collections will diminish.

With the budget system controlling Government disbursements, it is predicted that the monthly fluctuations of the debt will not be so violent. Heretofore the debt has fluctuated because the Government periodically borrowed money against expected tax receipts and spent its income before the money was received. Taxes flow into the Government coffers in larger proportions during March, June, September and December.

In the past the debt has taken a sudden drop after each of these months. July, 1921, showed a drop, as did October and December. But in each case the debt began to climb shortly after. In no case, however, was the increase large enough to take the debt total back to the former high level.

Some gain was made in the level of the debt in August as compared with June. In November, the new borrowings failed to bring the debt back to the level of early September made against the expected income tax receipts of the middle of that month.

In February, 1921, the debt rose as compared with January. But the rise stopped short of $23,500,000,000. That was nearly $100,000,000 below the former high level of November. The debt is now nearly $900,000,000 below the high point of February. It is likely to rise during April. But will not reach the level of February Treasury officials believe.

Body of Murdered Girl Found In Vacant House

Hoopes town, Ill., April 28.—Gertrude Hanna, aged 25, choir girl, whose body was found in the basement of the United Presbyterian parsonage here was smothered by chloroform, the police believed today. The girl, who was soon to become a mother, was killed some spot distant from the parsonage and her body hidden in the clammy basement of the unoccupied house. Examination of the girl's vital organs by physicians failed to reveal the presence of poison and there were no marks of injuries on the body. Several young men whose names have been coupled with that of Miss Hanna since discovery of the body started gossip buzzing have been questioned by the police.

Hoopes town, Ill., April 28.—Gertrude Hanna, choir girl, met her death while her betrayer who had kidnapped her, tried to persuade her to undergo an illegal operation. He held her prisoner for several days and then administered chloroform, according to chief of police Bogard. Death resulted accidentally, Bogard believes.

and the murderer hid the body in the basement of the abandoned house where it was found by carpenters. Search is being made throughout the country surrounding Hoopes town for a house where it is believed the girl had a rendezvous with her lover and where he detained her by force. Half a dozen young men who were believed to have some information were interrogated by the police today, but all denied any knowledge of the murder.

Hoopes town, Ill., April 28.—Bogard believes the man did not intend to slay the girl but planned to perform an illegal operation while she was unconscious from chloroform, but an overdose may have caused her death. The man could not leave the body at the place of death because of the great danger of being traced and discovered. Probably in the night he moved it to the deserted parsonage entering the one window which was not locked on the inside and arranged the body on the basement shelf where it was found.

On graduating from High School in 1915 Miss Hanna taught rural school for four years. She then went to a Chicago hospital and began a course in nursing but left there to become a clerk in a mail order house.

A nervous, break-down three years ago caused her to return to her home.

Baptist Women Undaunted by Big Task

To Raise $2,000,000 for
Home and Foreign
Mission Work.

Northern Baptist women throughout the United States are today engaged in one of the largest money-raising efforts ever entered upon by women alone. During March and April they will carry on a campaign for $2,000,000 for the work of the fiscal year, on home and foreign fields.

"This is woman's work, as well as man's, and our women will do it," declared Mrs. George W. Coleman, Boston, Mass., President of the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society and a member of the national committee of the Women's Continuation Campaign.

"Women today have extended their horizons to take in the needs of the world," said Mrs. Martha MacLeish, President of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, also on the campaign committee of ten members. "The day has gone when women could feel that they had done their part if they served as the family church-goers. Now women are church-goers, as well as church-goers."

"Northern Baptist women will do their share in the crisis that confronts the denomination," stated Mrs. Helen

Barrett Montgomery, President of the Northern Baptist Convention. "It will take a miracle for our women to raise $2,000,000 in so short a time. But miracles can be accomplished through faith, and we have chosen, 'Have faith in God as our slogan.'"

Although the Women's Continuation Campaign is a part of the general denominational campaign for $15,000,000 during March and April, the women have their own campaign organization, and will raise their $2,000,000 entirely by their own effort, and through their own sacrifices.

They set their own quota, and offered their services to Dr. John V. Atchison, General Director of the General Board of Promotion of the Northern Baptist Convention. Northern Baptist women are accustomed to take an unusually active part in the work of the denomination. No other great religious body has ever chosen a woman for its president. One-third of the members of the Administrative Committee of the General Board of Promotion are women, and there are a number of women pastors in the Northern Baptist Convention field.

Many ingenious plans for swelling the women's fund are being put into effect in the various states. In Iowa, where the women's quota is $75,000 and where there is a large farm population, women are asked to give all the eggs laid on every Sunday during March and April to the campaign. In Illinois, here the quota is $171,750, women are giving memory gifts, as memorials to parents, husbands, children, or other relatives. The women of Kansas are putting their campaign play, 'Solve the Over the Top,' to help secure their $90,000 quota.

The quotas assigned to the various districts, and the district campaign directors are as follows:

Atlantic District, $300,000; Mrs. George H. Swift of Woodbury, N. J.; New York District, $333,333.33; Mrs. Orrin B. Judd of Brooklyn; Central District, $250,000; Mrs. John Nyeen, of Chicago; West Central District, $200,000; Mrs. F. L. Miner, of Des Moines; East Central District, $300,000; Mrs. R. L. Hutchinson, of Huntington, W. Va.

I have been the custom for so long among college professors and other educational authorities to deplore numerous defects in education as it is dished out by the public schools that one more or less lamentation of this character should not make much difference. Nevertheless, the complaint, Dr. Lightner Witmer, professor of Psychology at the University of Pennsylvania, finds it impossible to refrain from adding to the long list of interesting because of its novelty.

The great flaw of the present day system of public instruction as Dr. Witmer has observed it is that it attempts "to educate mediocrities beyond their intelligence." He would keep average children from going beyond their appropriate number of school years by making their parents understand that it will do them no good to have further learning, that they might as well be at work helping to earn money for the family.

"The same thing," he adds, "is true of the colleges. Each year great number of pupils are allowed to matriculate who have no business in college, who accomplish nothing, except to clog up the system."

This theory, if applied literally to all school children would do away with education since the purpose of all instruction is to teach the pupil "things that were beyond their intelligence" before. No pupil, even though as dumb as some college professors, fails to benefit from additional instruction, how ever far he may have already progressed in a given line of study.

The human being learns something new every day of life. If a pupil can go to school and learn nothing, the fault is in the school and not the pupil.

"Whose Speech is Song?"

All old Poets, Homer's and the rest, are undoubtedly songs I would say, in strictness, that all right poems are what whatever is not sung is properly no poem, but a piece of prose crumpled into jangling lines—to the great injury of the grammar, to the great grief of the reader for the most part. What we want to get at is the thought the man had, if he had any; why should he twist it into rhyme? It is only when the heart of him is wrapped into true passion of melody and the very tones of him, according to Coleridge's remarks, become musical by the greatness, depth, and nature of his thoughts, that we can give him right to rhyme and sing; that we call him a Poet, and listen to him as the Heroic of Speakers,—whose speech is Song.—Carlyle.

Put it in Writing.

Agreements made by word of mouth are like leaves of the forest. They are out, drop off and blow away. Make a couple of copies of any contract you enter into. Keep one yourself and give the party of the second part another and lay the third away in your safe, with your most valuable papers.—Cleveland News-Leader.

Worth Knowing.

The Angels' bell, always, rung twice a day, takes its name from the best words of the player. The De Puid bells bell sounds one hour after the Ave. It was only a comparatively recent date that bells were used for calling people to church. For ages they were used solely for keeping evil spirits at distance.

Brain Alters Position.

There is no doubt that the normal brain obeys the law of gravity and alters its position with varying positions of the head. Every organ of the body possesses a degree of mobility proportional to the extent to which it is covered by a semi-membrane separating it from the skull. The cavity which contains it. Whenever the skull and dura are widely opened during an operation, movements of the brain can be demonstrated by altering the position of the head, and although their extent is probably exaggerated by reason of the different physical conditions which obtain in the open as compared with the closed skull, there is no reason to suppose that all movement is absent when the skull is whole.—Percy Sargent in Brain.

First Known Use of Ink

The bureau of standards says that the earliest use of liquid which can be described as ink is found in the remains of ancient Egyptian civilization, and the date was probably about 2500 B. C. Chinese or Indian ink is known to have been in existence about this time. These inks were black and their base was carbon. Probably gum oil or varnish was mixed with it.

WHY WOMEN GET DESPONDENT

Are not women naturally as light-hearted, brave and hopeful as men? Yes, certainly; but a woman's organism is essentially different from man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman develops nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, backaches, dragging-down pains and melancholia she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such troubles. This root and herb medicine contains no drugs and has been the standby of American womanhood for nearly fifty years.

WILL BOX AT LEGION MEET

Two Ministers Take 10 Step Into Squared Arena at Washington State Convention.

For perhaps the first time in history two ministers of the gospel are going to box. In the squared arena for the benefit of the audience. Rev. John W. Beard, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Hoquiam, Wash., and Rev. Earl A. Blackman, national chaplain of the American Legion, will "mix it up" at the Legion state convention in Wenatchee, Wash., this fall.

Reverend Beard, who served as "sky pilot" with the old Ninety-first division in France, boxed John Dickinson, veteran of the British forces, at a recent meeting of his own Legion post. The Legion's national chaplain is an ardent boxing adherent himself. Though a pastor of a Kansas church, he finds time to act as boxing referee occasionally and dons the gloves himself just to keep in trim. Prior to his entering the ministry, he was known as a track and football star.

That his title of "fighting chaplain" isn't at all amiss is shown by a glance at Reverend Beard's war record. One doesn't think of a chaplain as having a war record, but Reverend Blackman's future opponent served with the Three Hundred and Sixty-first infantry, "Wildcat" division with the rank of captain. He was awarded the French Croix de Guerre and received a citation from the American government. The war over, he jumped into the Legion and was elected state chaplain for the department of Washington.

STILL AIDS EX-SERVICE MEN
Mrs. John Marshall, Kentucky, National Committeewoman, Active in After-War Work.

Mrs. John Marshall of Anchorage, Ky., known to thousands of ex-service men who were stationed in the Blue Grass state during the war and who visited the Red Cross canteen to be served with coffee and doughnuts, is still doing her large "bit" for the sick and wounded ex-service men. As national executive committeewoman for the American Legion Auxiliary from Kentucky, she is especially active in all the things that her organization is doing.

Her latest plan results in Louisville, Ky., having a boarding home for ex-service men who are taking vocational training there. Nominal fees, a huge living room and library and a real home atmosphere, are high points in the life of the "boys" who make their home with Mrs. Marshall.

More than 300,000 service men were cared for at the canteen presided over by Mrs. Marshall during the war. Her experiences with the soldiers and sailors are many. Months after the armistice she received a letter from a service man whose wedding supper she had prepared in 1917. It read, "Mrs. Canteen Lady, can you help me find my wife, not that she is much account, but I want to get married again and must find her first."

You are hereby notified that the undersigned Commissioner, appointed by the court to take the testimony in the above entitled case, and report the same with form of decree to the court will sit for the purposes of his appointment at his office in the Borough of Clearfield, Pa., on Saturday, June 3rd, 1922, at ten o'clock in the morning of said day, when and where all parties interested may be fully heard and where you may attend if you see proper.

Dead Sea Stone.
On the shores of the Dead sea and west of that sea between Jerusalem and the vicinity of Nebi Musa is found a peculiar stone. The stone, which is abundant, is commonly used by the local people in making souvenirs. It is a matter of common knowledge that the Bedouins have used this stone for several years as fuel.

The Stork's Mistake.
"Oh, mother," said a little girl excitedly, "there's a new baby over at Mrs. Brown's; but don't you think the stork meant it for Miss Jones, who boards there? 'Cause Mrs. Brown has four children already and Miss Jones hasn't got a single one."—Boston Transcript.

Wrong Belief Concerning Hebrew.
Less than two centuries ago even men of learning believed that Hebrew was the original language, and that all other languages were offshoots from it. It has since been discovered that Hebrew was a dead language in the time of Jesus, and that modern language has been derived from it not even Yiddish.

Show Eggs Are All Right

X-rayed eggs are the latest wrinkle introduced by one of the largest grocery organizations in the city. To satisfy patrons of the purity and high quality of the eggs, it has installed in each branch store a patented container having a capacity of three dozen with a separate place for each egg. The container is filled with eggs picked at random from a case, after which a brilliant electric light is turned on beneath the eggs, and any "rots or spots" are revealed at once. It is the ordinary system of candling eggs, but sounds better when called X-raying.—New York Evening Post.

The Carat

This is any standard of weight, although not one person in a million ever makes practical use of it; possesses great prestige because of its connection with diamonds, and other precious stones. But how many of us have any clear idea of the weight represented by a carat? In England it is customary to reckon 15 1/2 carats to the ounce, troy. This makes the carat equivalent to 205 1/2 milligrams, or 3.1683 grains. Attempts have been made to secure general recognition in all countries of a metric standard unit of 206 milligrams.

Better Shoes for Less Money

E-J Girls' Shoes are built to stand the test. Like famous E-J Work Shoes, long wear is guaranteed in E-J's own tanneries.

Boys are hard on shoes. E-J's 1st shoes enjoy rough play. Put your boy in a pair of E-J's and let him romp freely. They'll stand it.

True Economy On Children's Shoes

In buying shoes for your children this spring—be careful! Don't confuse cheap shoes with economical shoes. Shoes with quality sacrificed for price won't save you any money.

Endicott-Johnson prices are low. But it is the reduced cost of quantity production not inferior materials that makes these low prices to you. E-J's for children are economical shoes—reasonably priced, long wearing.

Your local dealer has the new line for spring and summer ready for you. Take the kiddies to your local store and fit them out. They will like the style and snap of E-J's as well as you will like their strength and low price. And—very important—they are lasted and modeled on scientific lines not to cramp or injure growing feet.

Buy at your Local Shoe Store with the Endicott-Johnson Sign in the window

The real test of children's shoes comes in strenuous play. E-J's are just the thing for Boys and Girls.

Priced from $2.00 to $4.50 according to style and size.

DENNIS NOLAN DIES ON PACIFIC COAST

Dennis Nolan, formerly of Phillipsburg, died yesterday at his home in Ellensburg, Washington, according to a telegram received by his grandson, Bernard Nolan, of Brown's Boot Shop. The deceased was about 80 years of age and is survived by one son and a daughter in this section, Dennis Nolan and Mrs. Wm. Leadbetter, both of Barnesboro, Pa.

Curious Scales Used in Ecuador.
A short stick carrying a suspended pan at each end and held up by a cord about the center is the common trade balance of Ecuador. The weight is a rock about the size of a man's fist, and while no two of the stones are ever the same size, the merchant is always prepared to pledge his honor that the stone weighs a full and exact pound. The price for a commodity is almost never fixed, and as the Ecuadorian is always prepared and expects to come down somewhat from his first price, it speaks words for his optimism that he invariably tries to get more. The bargaining does not actually begin until you have disregarded the first figure and asked, "What is the last price?"

Horrid Thing!
"We had a splendid time in the country," said Mrs. Newrich, "and my husband has turned out to be a good shot. The men went out one day to do some shooting, and my husband got what they call a bull. And some mean old farmer made him pay for it."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

MORE REPRISAL KILLINGS TERRORIZE IRELAND

Blow for the Minister.
In a certain church one of the duties of the old sexton was to pump the organ. The man was deaf and perhaps on that account had fallen into the somewhat embarrassing habit of abruptly quitting his task before the hymn was ended. One Sunday a new minister was coming, and since he was young and unmarried, the young lady who played the organ naturally wanted to appear to the best advantage. As soon as the service had begun she wrote a note and, handing it to the sexton, told him to read it at once. Evidently the old man did not correctly catch his words, for to her horror she saw him go to the minister right after the first hymn and hand him the note. The minister opened it and read: "Keep bloying steadily away until I tell you to stop."—Youth's Companion.

Value of Varnish Long Known.
Varnish as a preservative, made from gums, is by no means modern, for a so-called varnish was entombed in wrappings around forms when mummies were first laid away in ancient Egypt. And in the Nineteenth century B. C. temples on Thebes were decorated with paintings in which varnish had its part. The magnetic quality found in amber was long ago supposed to lend richness of tone to violins which were varnished with a mixture of amber and alcohol. Zanzibar gum is the newest approach to amber in clearness, and often beautiful bugs are found embedded within its clear substance. Such a curious thing as the tail of a chimpanzee, with each hair spread as if in the breeze, has been found embedded in Zanzibar gum.

SEWING BEE AT WOODLAND

On Tuesday, April 25, a crowd of jolly neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Roy Peters of Mineral Springs for another sewing bee. A delightful day was spent which included a delicious dinner that was served at 12 o'clock. The guests were Mrs. Fullerton, Mrs. John Palmer, Mrs. B. J. Young and son James, and Mrs. Maude Peters, of Mineral Springs; Mrs. Brac Albert, Mrs. Burke Albert and daughter, Grace; Mrs. Wilsoncroft, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Will Berger, Mrs. Mary Gingery, Mrs. Maggie Young, Mrs. Jess Leavish and Mrs. J. N. Palmer, of Woodland.

Mrs. J. N. Palmer and Miss Leavish held the honors of sewing the most short rags. The ladies sewed 21 lbs rags, a good days work.

Aster Hardy Perennial.
The aster is one of the hardiest perennials, and is spread throughout the world. Most of the numerous varieties belong to North America and are found in abundance in the fields. They bloom mostly from the middle of July until the first frost and are a prominent feature of most flower gardens. As they may be sown as early as the middle of March.

Nash Leads the World in Motor Car Value

THAT leadership which Nash cars are assuming everywhere throughout the country in their respective classes can be seen reflected nowhere more clearly and unmistakably than in the figures for the annual sale of motor cars by all manufacturers.

But a scant five years ago Nash stood 24th in volume of business yearly. Now Nash is in 8th place and that in itself speaks weightily as to the quality and value embodied in the fours and sixes that bear the Nash emblem on the radiator.
